Hello, I'm Raihan.

I am interested in how brands build relationships with audiences through relevant messages and creative content.

My experience spans F&B brand marketing, technology content, and campus media communications. I develop ideas, execute content, and use audience responses to shape the next iteration.

Beyond content, I have experience coordinating teams and building partnerships. I am interested in pursuing a career in digital marketing and public relations.

Marketing Communication Intern

Divia Unpad TV is the official community television station of Padjadjaran University, operating under the Faculty of Communication Sciences. Holding an official Broadcasting Operating Permit (IPP), it serves the West Java 1 region with 24-hour digital broadcasts and professional editorial standards comparable to commercial media institutions.

I built Divia's LinkedIn presence from the ground up, used the AIDA framework for copy, and developed an editorial calendar for employer branding.

Building a local ice cream brand's digital presence

Digital Marketing Strategist

TIRIZ is an emerging local food and beverage (F&B) brand specializing in innovative ice cream and dairy products. It focuses on high-quality, accessible products while building a strong digital presence and community engagement in the local market.

I managed digital strategy and execution with a five-person team. The two-month plan combined educational, promotional, trend-led, and engagement content for Unpad students.

Technology content for students

Marketing Intern

Cakradata is a pioneering Indonesian technology firm using big data and artificial intelligence (AI) for perception engineering. It specializes in digital media monitoring, audience analysis, and reputation management, helping brands and public figures build data-driven communication strategies and strong digital images.

I reviewed digital performance through audience analysis and media monitoring. I developed content plans and soft-sell copy for Instagram and TikTok.

Leading HIMA's Internship Program

Staff, Human Resources and Organizational Development Department

The Communication Management Student Association is the primary student association representing the Communication Management study program at Padjadjaran University. It focuses on organizational management, student advocacy, and comprehensive skill-building initiatives.

I led a nine-person team and coordinated the HIMA Internship Program across eight divisions. 81 of 92 new students took part in the program, a participation rate of approximately 88%. All established KPIs were achieved.

Staff, Bureau of Organizational Synergy and Development

BEM Fikom Unpad is the highest student executive body at the Faculty of Communication Sciences, Padjadjaran University. It leads strategic initiatives, student advocacy, and faculty-wide programs with social impact.

As part of the Organizational Synergy and Development (SPO) Bureau, I supervised the 14-member Department of Profession and Scientific Affairs, monitored its performance, and supported its programs.

I also served as event lead for Welcoming Party, an event welcoming the newly formed cabinet staff. I developed the event concept and led a team of fellow SPO staff. The event met its set targets.
